

NEW & HAPPENING AT EAST NORWALK ASSOCIATION LIBRARY!

October, November, and December 2017

Cherry Blossom in Bloom Painting Class- Artist and educator Doris Benter will teach a class for adults of all abilities to create their own masterpiece. This program has a limit of 20 participants. Please sign-up at information desk. October 14th, @ 11:00am - Location Van Zilen Hall

Teen Read Week Oct 8th –14 -Get on the computer and cast your vote for your favorite book title as well as read summaries and leave your comments or reviews go to www.ala.org/yalsa/teenstopten to participate.

Halloween Trick or Treat at the Library The Library will remain open to welcome our little trick or treaters. Keep your Halloween safe and make us a destination on your candy stops and have a picture taken of your trickster too. Tuesday, October 31 @6:30pm-7:30pm, Location– library children’s room

Katharine Hepburn: From Hartford to Hollywood- Her career in stage, film and TV reflected the changing roles of women in a broader society. The Connecticut Historical Society. offers a complete picture of how Kate the woman became a star. Wednesday, November 15, @ 6:30pm Location -Van Zilen Hall

#Board Games Galore! Celebrate International Game Week. at the Library. Kids stop by to play or learn new and retro board games. Ask for Mr. Dan, Wednesday, November, 29th@ 3:30pm, Location- Van Zilen Hall

Cooking Demonstration by Author and Chef Penn Hongthong. She will be here to do a demonstration of Lao cuisine. Penn Hongthong has taken healthy recipes passed down through her family's generations and has captured simple, fresh, and authentic flavors. The variety of ingredients used in Lao cooking gives each dish a unique and explosive flavor and texture that tantalizes the taste buds, exotic but not overpowering to scare first-timers. Please sign up at information desk. Saturday, December 9, @11:30am Location -Van Zilen Hall

Christmas Party– The East Norwalk Association Library is partnering with Marines Toys for Tots to bring Christmas Cheer. We have planned a fun-filled day of arts and crafts, pictures with Santa and more. WHILE SUPPLIES LAST. Saturday, December 16th, @ 11:00 am-1:00 pm Location– Van Zilen Hall

Book Buddies- have your child spend the afternoon reading with a new furry friend. Book buddies is a reading program designed to motivate kids and give kids extra practice with reading and oral skills and build confidence as kids read to specially trained reading dogs. Please pre-register at information desk for a Saturday to meet a new friend @ 11:30 am, Location- Van Zilen Hall

CHECK BACK FOR ADDITIONS TO OUR PROGRAM LINE-UP.